

Product Fact Sheet

An intriguing and beautiful collection of conversation starters, TableTopics will spice up family dinners, break the ice at cocktail hour, and enrich dinner parties. With editions for adults, families, teens, couples, women, and many more, TableTopics strives to make the most out of the conversations that happen around us every day, no matter where we are, or who we are.

TableTopics Cubes

TableTopics ultramodern cubes hold 135 clever cards, each posing a different question – some humorous, some serious, and all of them entertaining.
Sugg. Retail $25.00, including 135 question cards in each 4” acrylic cube

Original edition (red)

Created for adults but appropriate for all ages, the Original edition is a gracious host’s best friend. Guaranteed to entertain in even the most awkward situations the fun, thought-provoking questions will ensure lively conversation around your dinner table or at cocktail parties.

Which is more important intelligence or common sense?
If you could do something dangerous just once with no risk what would you do?
Where would you choose to live if you had to leave this country?

Family edition (green)

One of the most important things we can do with our children is to connect over a family meal. TableTopics Family edition gets the conversation started at mealtimes, bedtime or in the car. The fun mix of questions ranges from silly to thought-provoking to entertaining.

What’s your favorite family tradition?
Is it more fun to be a parent or a child?
What family or school rule would you like most to change?

Teen edition (orange)

Is there anything teenagers like to do more than talk with their closest friends? TableTopics Teen edition sparks fun, interesting, and meaningful chats on the phone, at parties, on dates, on road trips – wherever. Roll with laughter finding out secrets about your closest friends!

What’s the best birthday party you can imagine?
Could you get straight A’s next year if you were offered one million dollars?
For which store would you like to win unlimited free shopping?

Girls Night Out edition (pink)

You already know how easy it is to have fun with the girls. Now make the experience even more memorable using these conversation starters for women. Questions range from hilarious to thought-provoking, guaranteeing an entertaining evening for everyone. You never know what you'll find out about your closest friends!

What was your strangest date ever?

What was the worst hairstyle you ever had?

What fashion from another period would you love to wear?

Couples edition (blue)

Whether you've recently begun dating someone new, are engaged to your best friend or celebrating your 50th anniversary with the love of your life, these thought-provoking, engaging and entertaining questions will challenge and inspire you. Learn something new about your partner and maybe even yourself!

What possession of your partner's would you like to throw away?

Is it your similarities or your differences that attract you to each other?

What's the dumbest argument you ever had?

Spirit edition (purple)

Use these questions to bring the eternal into the everyday, to get you thinking, and to enjoy the conversations that will develop. Created and inspired by spiritual thinkers and leaders from many of the world's spiritual traditions: Buddhism, Christianity, Judaism, New Age, Hinduism, and more....

Is it more difficult for you to speak kindly or honestly?

Do the pleasures of earth bring you closer to God or farther away?

If you knew you were going to die in 5 years how would you change your life?

BookClub edition (teal)

Compelling questions create the starting point for thought-provoking conversations about today's favorite books. for energizing book clubs, or as a gift for friends, teachers, and anyone interested in lively conversation about books and reading.

What alternative title would you choose for this book?

How did the characters change from the beginning to the end of the story?

Will this book be relevant 30 years from now?

Gourmet edition (orange) – coming Jan. 2008

Tease your palate with these delicious food and wine-themed conversation starters. Entertain dinner guests, break the ice at cocktail parties or gift a deserving epicurean friend.

Which celebrity chef would you most like to fix you a meal?

What's your favorite cookbook?

What fruit or vegetable is best homegrown?

Topics To Go

At a restaurant, in the car, or at the beach, these portable conversation starters make the most of time spent with family and friends. 40 questions come in a neat slipcase, making it easy to take great conversations anywhere you go. Six editions are now available.

Sugg. Retail - $9.00

TravelTopics

Filled with great questions to turn any car or airplane trip into a voyage of discovery for traveling companions of all ages.

What region of the country has the best food?

In what language would you like to be fluent?

KidsTopics

A delightful array of questions to keep children and their friends entertained for hours on end.

What would be a really good flavor for toothpaste?

What's your favorite Disney character?

DatingTopics

Fun, flirty questions for an enjoyable, no-stress date.

What's your perfect Sunday?

How would your last girlfriend or boyfriend describe you?

WineTopics

These wine-themed questions will spark an entertaining conversation over your next glass of wine with friends or make the perfect gift for your favorite wine lover.

What's the bottle in your cellar that you're most looking forward to drinking?

If you could have a private tour of any winery in the world which would you choose?

GolfTopics

Tee off lively conversations at the clubhouse or gift your favorite golfer with these fun golf-themed questions.

Which professional would you choose to have a lesson with?

What's the prettiest hole you've ever played?

Election 2008 Topics

With the '08 election around the corner, there's plenty to talk about! Use these questions to spark a lively conversation about the issues we face.

When is making a pre-emptive strike against another country justified?

Whose opinion do you value when deciding how to vote?

PartyTopics

Great parties begin with great conversations. PartyTopics gets the party started with napkins, coasters and place cards, featuring conversation-starting questions. Guaranteed to entertain your guests and keep them talking!

PartyTopics Cocktail Napkins with Original or Wine-themed questions- 1 pack of 20 - $5.50

PartyTopics Coasters- 1 pack of 15 - $5.50

PartyTopics Place Cards- 1 pack of 30 - $5.50

Is science or art more essential to humanity?

What one goal do you hope to accomplish this year?

When you were young, what did you want to grow up to be?

JournalTopics

Jump-start your journaling with three editions of JournalTopics, each with 100 questions – one at the top of each page. They make a thoughtful wedding or shower gift!

Sugg. Retail $12.00

My Life Journal

Where have you lived and what were your favorite things about each place?

If you could appoint a board of directors to help you run your life, who would you choose and why?

My Wedding Journal

What were the qualities that first attracted you to your partner?

What three photographs do you hope are captured perfectly on your wedding day?

My Pregnancy Journal

What do you want to make sure your baby has that you didn't have?

What games from your childhood are you most excited about sharing with your child?

Please visit www.tabletopics.com for more information and a current retailer list.